

NAVARINO NEIGHBORHOOD ASSOCIATION MEETING MINUTES

OCTOBER 11, 2010

Navarino Neighborhood Association advocates literacy, embraces the diversity, and promotes Navarino as a great family neighborhood.

- In attendance: Ann Hartman, Linda Bosetski, Chris King, Melissa Hauk, Cindy Mills, Deby Dehn, Rob Miller, Tonissa & Bob VerHaagh, Tom & Monica Pecor, Dave Boyce,
- Meeting called to order at 6PM by Ann Hartman
- Minutes of September meeting were approved
- Linda gave treasury report with current balance of $1162.68. She also talked about the book fair at Barnes & Noble the day after Thanksgiving. We can distribute the information regarding the Navarino Neighborhood fundraiser but can't approach customers going into Barnes & Noble and can't connect with media. Everyone is asked to distribute flyers to get this information out to the public.
- Amy Kocha sent information to Ann regarding the Park Commission sending Mr. Landvetter to our January meeting to discuss the future plans for Navarino Park including a schematic of its boundaries. The planning process will start at that time. There will be a posting on our web site for neighbors to submit ideas as to what they want to see in the park.
- Rob Miller wants to formally thank Tony Theisen for all his efforts regarding the park. Motion was approved. Monica will send out the thank you.
- Ann noted that Officer Paul VanHandel feels our neighborhood is doing better. Also talked about shooting incident of 15 year old at 1300 block of Crooks Street. Tonissa saw article regarding this incident in Green Bay Press Gazette stating it sent a negative tone of our neighborhood.
- For more information regarding the 'Home Energy Audit Rebate Program for Residents', contact Jennifer @ 448-2028 or go to www.ci.green-bay.wi.us/SGB/
- More information from Mark Freeburg will be obtained regarding the First Downs for Trees Program
- Discussion on New Leaf Co-Op grocery store in downtown Green Bay. Membership costs - $180.00. Rob suggested $100.00 support until we get more information on the commitment. It was approved that we can't give anything financially at this time.
- Ann will contact Leopold Aldo School regarding Chess at The Attic
- Volunteers are needed for Trick or Treat for Boo-ks on Halloween. Please contact Linda if you can help.
- Christmas book reading will be December 8, 2010 at Arketype. Linda will look into the book and reader for the evening. Cookies and cider will be served.

- Melissa Hauk stated that the Brown County Trust for Historical Preservation board meets the 3rd Thursday of every month for those interested. “If your house could talk” info to focus on keeping historical buildings. For more information contact Melissa.
- Next meeting on Monday, November 8, 2010 at 6PM at NeighborWorks.
Our Mission is to combat juvenile delinquency and prejudice in the Navarino Neighborhood
